WHEREAS, Marv Keller was one of the first persons selected to serve the citizens of South Dakota as a full-time law trained magistrate in the unified judicial system of South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, Prior to this service, Marv distinguished himself in private practice and as a deputy state's attorney; and,

WHEREAS, Marv's work with the revision of the criminal code and statutes relating to criminal procedure has been recognized for excellence by the members of his profession: and,

WHEREAS, Marv has been fair, honest and consistent in applying the law in one of the highest volume courts of the State; and,

WHEREAS, Marv's actions, decisions, judgments and many extra hours of hard work and extra effort have brought credit and respect to the South Dakota judicial system; and,

WHERREAS, Marv has never avoided those tasks which are most difficult in the judicial system; and,

WHEREAS, Marv Keller will soon retire from his position; and,

WHEREAS, His retirement from such devoted service to the people of the State is worthy of public recognition by the people of South Dakota; and

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper for the Governor to make note of this special occasion and honor him for his service:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim Tuesday, October 30, 1979, as in South Dakota, and join with Marv's friends, family and the South Dakota Bar Association in wishing him joy, friendship and congratulations this evening.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-nineth Day of October, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-nine
